

CHSTVCHAPMAN UNIVERSITY STYLE VIDEO ESSAY

SCORING RUBRIC

Assignment: Create a self-introductory video essay no more than two minutes in length. Your video should visually highlight something about yourself, your personality, your interests, etc. that may be related to broadcasting and film, but could also highlight other areas of interest. The only rule is that you may NOT appear in the video in any way (including any photographs of yourself), so be creative. We are primarily looking for your strengths at conveying a story visually and for evidence of your creativity. You MAY use your own voice to narrate the video if you wish.

SCORE	STORY	SHOT COMPOSITION	EDITING	AUDIO
5	Video tells a clear story (your story). Video demonstrates your strengths at conveying a story visually with an emphasis on creativity. Your interests and passion(s) are shown clearly in the video essay. You focus on an ASPECT of yourself. A personality trait or an interest.	Shots composed to reinforce meaning. Wide variety to maximize audience engagement. Consistent use of B-roll for meaning.	Clean edits that do not distract from the story and keep the storyline moving with natural (cinematic) pace. Creative editing and transitioning between shots is seamless and without distraction.	Clean audio w/ use of natural sound. Audio is interwoven so that the audio track transitions are seamless.
3	Video tells a clear story. Video shows your strengths at conveying a story visually and demonstrates some creativity. Your video features a less developed focus in a personality trait or an interest.	Shots & B-roll composed for meaning. Some variety.	Some errors in edits that slightly distract from the story.	Clean Audio W/ No use of Natural Sound
1	Limited evidence of visual storytelling with limited creativity and focus on an aspect of yourself.	Consistent shots w/ some B-roll	Several errors that distract from the storyline	Some Noise problems (hiss, background audio). No Natural Sound
0	No evidence of story.	Little evidence of shot composition.	Many errors make the piece difficult to follow.	Audio is distracting.

FEATURE STORY

SCORING RUBRIC

Assignment: PRODUCE AN ORIGINAL FEATURE STORY. A PARTNER MAY HELP YOU FILM THE STORY, BUT YOUR STORY MUST BE WRITTEN, REPORTED AND EDITED BY YOU. A FEATURE STORY SHOULD HAVE A CLEAR MAIN CHARACTER AND MESSAGE. IN KEEPING WITH THE GOAL THAT WE ARE THE VOICE FOR THE VOICELESS, IT MUST BE CLEAR TO THE VIEWER WHY THIS PERSON'S STORY IS IMPORTANT. THE FOCUS IS ON EMOTIONAL CONNECTION WITH YOUR AUDIENCE AND IMPACTFUL USE OF POINT OF VIEW AND PLOT DEVELOPMENT. TYPICAL LENGTH WILL BE 1:15 TO 1:30.

SCORE	WRITING	REPORTING	VOICEOVER/ STANDUP	SOUND BITES	SHOT COMPOSITION	EDITING	AUDIO
5	Introduces the topic to the target audience, presenting background information that connects the character. Then develops the plot to a revelation of the major conflict , leading to a dramatic conclusion.	More than 1 interview w/ credible sources providing depth of perspective to the story.	Standup serves a purpose and includes a prop that reinforces a message in the piece. AND/OR Voiceover is woven throughout the story to reinforce the theme and guide the discovery in the narrative.	Used for credibility, emphasis and emotional impact. Natural flow of ideas in the pacing.	Shots composed to reinforce meaning. Wide variety to maximize audience engagement. Consistent use of B-roll for meaning.	Clean edits that do not distract from the story and keep the storyline moving with natural pace,	Clean audio w/No distracting sound. Use of Nat sound.
4	Introduces the topic, leading to a conclusion.	1 interview w/ solid depth of emotion and reflection on the subject.	Standup AND/OR Voiceover is woven throughout the story. Some issues with Connectedness	Used for credibility and emphasis. Some redundancy in the pacing.	Shots & B-roll composed for meaning. Some variety.	Some errors in edits that slightly distract from the story.	Clean Audio W/No use of Nat Sound
3	Introduces the topic.	1 interview w/ some depth on the subject.	Standup AND/OR Voiceover is disconnected to the story.	Awkward flow of ideas.	Consistent shots w/ some B-roll	Several errors that distract from the storyline	Some Noise. No Nat Sound
0	No evidence of writing organization.	1 interview w/ very little depth on the subject.	No Standup OR Voiceover.	Difficult to follow.	Little evidence of shot composition.	Many errors make the piece difficult to follow.	Audio is distracting.

CHSTV SIZZLE REEL

SCORING RUBRIC

Assignment: Create a 90-second, quick-paced montage of your best work in front of, and behind the camera. This is your chance to really show your skills and passion for storytelling, journalism and filmmaking!

SCORE	SIZZLE REEL
5	First 30 seconds are VERY STRONG . It features your best work in a quick 6 or 7 second montage of clips. It shows a variety of "on camera" appearances and it demonstrates your creative "behind the camera" work with a good variety of examples. The total length is approximately 90 seconds and it shows your versatility in front of, and behind the camera We hear samples of your voiceover style. We see examples of creative standups. GRAB OUR ATTENTION IN THE FIRST 30 SECONDS.
3	First 30 seconds are STRONG . It features your best work, but with longer clip length (i.e. fewer examples). It shows a lessor variety of "on camera" appearances and it demonstrates your creative "behind the camera" work with fewer examples. Not as much evidence of standups, your voiceover style, and creative work.
1	Sizzle Reel contains a few examples of "on camera" and "behind the scenes" work, but the production value (lighting, shot composition, sound, reporter energy) is not as pronounced as the "5" and "3" score category.
0	No Sizzle Reel Submitted (or did not make deadline)